

Detroit Lacrosse Company and REEBOK

Present a FREE Clinic by
Brodie Merrill

Brodie Merrill currently plays in both the National Lacrosse League and Major League Lacrosse. He played college lacrosse at Georgetown University where he was a two time All American in 2004 and 2005. In 2006 he helped the Canadian national lacrosse team to an historic win at the World Lacrosse Championship in London, Ontario. He had an outstanding tournament, being named Best Defender and earning All-World honors. He was also the first player taken overall in the 2005 National Lacrosse League Draft. Merrill plays for the Portland LumberJax, and in 2006 was named both the NLL's Rookie of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year. He was the MLL Rookie of the Year in 2005 as a member of the Baltimore Bayhawks. Since 2006, he has played for the Rochester Rattlers. In 2006 and 2007, he was awarded back-to-back Major League Lacrosse Defensive Player of the Year Awards.

The clinic will run
12:00-1:00 on
Saturday, December 22nd.

Brodie will have plenty of FREE Reebok swag and will be signing autographs following the clinic.

Visit our Auburn Hills location, home of SAILL Lacrosse, for a chance to meet and learn from one of the best players in the world.

Please RSVP with your age and position to info@detroitlax.com if you are planning on attending this FREE clinic.

